

Bright and Steady

The Rayo Lamp

A bright and steady light depends upon the construction of the lamp.

The best skill has put forth its best effort in perfecting the Rayo Lamp.

As the air is fed to the flame—so does the light burn. The easy-flowing current of air through the air-tube of the Rayo Lamp secures a uniform light, with never a flicker or flare.

The ideal family lamp. Made of brass throughout and beautifully nickel-plated.

The Rayo is a low-priced lamp, but you cannot get a better lamp at any price.

CAPT. NORTHUP IS BACK FROM WASHINGTON

RETURNS HOME TO AWAIT THE APPOINTMENT OF COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS, WHICH HE SAYS WILL BE MADE BEFORE CHRISTMAS—COLLECTOR STILLMAN REMAINS IN WASHINGTON.

Capt. W. H. Northup, one of the applicants for the position of collector of customs at this port, returned yesterday from Washington, where he has been for the past two weeks, in company with others of the Florida Republican "machine," looking after his interests.

To friends yesterday afternoon Captain Northup stated that he expects the appointment to be made before Christmas. In fact, it may be made any day now, and the captain is sure that he will be the man appointed. So confident is he that he did not deem it necessary to remain longer in Washington.

Collector John E. Stillman, who also went to Washington ten days or two weeks ago, is still there.

regulation badges adopted by the city. It is surmounted by the figure of a golden eagle with outstretched wings and on the back are a few words expressing the appreciation of the donors at the treatment they had received in the past. The badge was purchased from voluntary gifts from each member of the police department, who were happy in being represented in such a ceremony. The committee arranging for such a pleasing affair consisted of Wm. Bailey, ex-desk sergeant; Special Officers Flynn and Ray, and Captains Frank and Wilde. At the conclusion of the presentation, cigars, also the donation of the men in ranks, were passed around and general congratulation of the chief of police was tendered by all present.

The ceremony, taking place as stated in the assembly room, was witnessed by a number of city officials, including Comptroller Ward, President of Council A. Greenhut, Clark Aymard, E. Elliott, member of board of safety, Mayor Johnson, Assistant to Plumbing Inspector J. Brandon, and a number of private citizens who had assembled for the purpose of seeing the dress inspection and who were also much surprised when the additional feature of the presentation was carried out.
